

Join us to an International Webinar

Cross-Country Perspectives on Food Loss and Waste from Germany, Israel, and the UK: Insights into Policies, and Practical Solutions

February 25th, 2026
0900-1300 CET
RSVP to Zoom

Core question to be discussed: How do policy frameworks and market practices shape food loss and waste along the supply chain

Opening & Framing Host: Prof. Ofira Ayalon, U. of Haifa	0900 Time (CET)
Country Session	0915-1030
Dr. Thomas Schmidt, Thünen Inst. Germany's Approach to Food Loss and Waste within the EU Framework
Prof. Valentina Stojceska, Brunel university of London, UK Food Waste in the UK: Challenges, Impacts, and Solutions
Ms. Rotem Shamay, Ministry of Environmental Protection Israel's National Plan to Reduce Food Loss and Waste
Food Loss and Waste along the supply chain	1030-1200
Ms. Mosunmola Adeoye, PhD student, Brunel University of London, UK An Assessment of Waste Generation in the Wheat Supply Chain
Ms. Gabi Appel, PhD student, Univ. of Haifa Food waste in the hospitality sector
A Short break
Dr. Ioana Huang, Harper Adams University , UK Net zero through food loss and waste reduction: ISO 20001 adoption potential among food businesses
Dr. Sebastian Isbanner, TU Berlin Household food waste reduction in Germany: Preliminary findings
Ms. Hilah Segal Klein, PhD student Univ. of Haifa Ethnographic Study on Households Food Waste in Israel
Synthesis discussion	1215-1300
Dr. Felicitas Schneider, Thünen Inst. & Prof. Ofira Ayalon, Univ. Of Haifa Cross-cutting policy gaps; Transferable best practices; Research needs and collaboration opportunities

